SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 640
By Dixon

A RESOLUTION encouraging the Governor to recognize Tuesday, April 16, 2002, as "Equal Pay Day" in Tennessee.

WHEREAS, more than thirty-five years after the passage of the Equal Pay Act and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, women continue to suffer the consequences of inequitable pay differentials; and

WHEREAS, wage discrimination laws are inadequately enforced and wage discrimination claims are extremely difficult to prove; and

WHEREAS, although women's earnings have been slowly approaching equality to men's earnings over time, the National Committee on Pay Equity proclaims that this reduction in wage inequity is related to a decrease in men's earnings, rather than an increase in women's earnings; and

WHEREAS, a vast majority of households depend on the wages of a working mother, and working families are often just one paycheck removed from hardship; and

SJR0640

01385697

WHEREAS, fair pay equity policies can be implemented simply and without undue costs, while enhancing the American economy; and

WHEREAS, Tuesday, April 16, 2002, symbolizes the day on which the wages paid to American women thus far in the year 2002, when added to women's earnings for all of 2001, finally equal the 2001 earnings of American men; now, therefore,
; now, therefore,
